Library Conferences for Trustees

There are two conferences each year of interest to library trustees: the Wisconsin Association of Public Libraries (WAPL) Conference in the spring and the Wisconsin Library Association (WLA) Conference in the fall.

This year's conferences are:

Wisconsin Library Association (WLA) Annual Conference
November 4 – 7, 2014
Kalahari Resort & Convention Center, Wisconsin Dells

Wisconsin Association of Public Libraries (WAPL) Annual Conference
May 7 – 9, 2014
Blue Harbor Resort, Sheboygan

While this year's program schedules are still under development, past conference sessions of interest to trustees have been:

- Labor v. Management: Staffing Your Library
- Intellectual Freedom in the Digital Age
- Managing Protest and Political Rights in the Public Library
- Ethics and Conflict of Interest
- The Library Board as Employer
- E-books and the Future of Library Services
- Wisconsin's Public Library Funding Landscape
- Local Library Planning
- Budgeting in Good Times and Bad
- What If: Questions and Answers on Intellectual Freedom
- Improve the Local Funding Outlook through Community Advocacy

Information can be found on the Wisconsin Library Association's Conference page: http://wla.wisconsinlibraries.org/events-conferences. Program information is usually posted 2 – 3 months before the conference.
