

We're
here
for you

Notes

Searching for a new job can be a stressful and overwhelming process, but it doesn't have to be.

With support from the Fox Valley Job Center, Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development and Oshkosh Public Library, new opportunities may be right around the corner. Write a great resume. Ace that interview. Get connected to local job networks. Gain the skills you need to feel empowered in your search.

If you're unemployed or are looking for a change, consider attending one of these sessions held at Oshkosh Public Library.

Contact us

Learn more about the services and resources available at the library to help you find employment.

(920) 236-5205

reference@oshkoshpubliclibrary.org

Find your next job with free
help to support your search

106 Washington Avenue, Oshkosh, Wis.

(920) 236-5205

reference@oshkoshpubliclibrary.org

oshkoshpubliclibrary.org

Wednesdays

1 – 4 p.m. | Conference Room in the Lower Level

Call (920) 236-5205 or email reference@oshkoshpubliclibrary.org to reserve an appointment.

Walk-Ins accepted the first three Wednesdays of the month if space is available.

Resume Workshop

First Wednesday

- Resume Writing Workshop from 1 – 2 p.m.
- Individual Resume Review from 2 – 4 p.m.

Job Interviewing Workshop

Second Wednesday

- Interview Workshop from 1 – 2 p.m.
- Mock Interviews from 2 – 4 p.m.

Career Counseling Workshop

Third Wednesday

- Career Counseling/Exploration Workshop from 1 – 2 p.m.
- Career Counseling/Exploration Appointments from 2 – 4 p.m.

What's my next step?

Fourth Wednesday – No appointment necessary

- Walk-In Assistance from 1 – 4 p.m.
  - o Job Searching
  - o Filing for unemployment
  - o Resume/Interview Assistance
  - o Career Exploration
  - o Community Referrals

A library card is not required to attend any of these sessions.